SECTION A: READING SKILLS (6 marks)

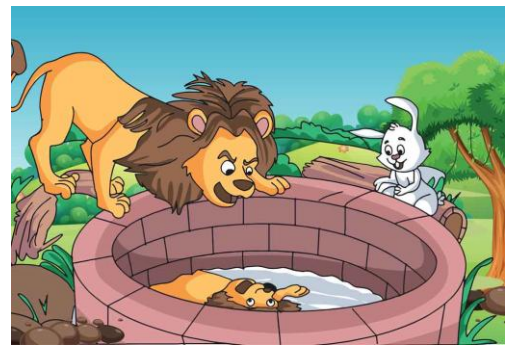

I. Read the passage and answer the questions given below.

The Clever Rabbit

Once upon a time, in a big forest, there lived a clever rabbit. All the animals liked him because he was kind and smart. One day, a hungry lion came to the forest. He wanted to eat all the animals.

The animals were scared and didn't know what to do. The clever rabbit had an idea. He went to the lion and said, "There is another lion in the forest who says he is stronger than you."

The lion became angry and wanted to find the other lion. The rabbit took the lion to a deep well. The lion looked into the well and saw his own reflection. He thought it was the other lion and jumped in to fight. But he could not get out. The animals were safe again. Everyone thanked the clever rabbit.

The Lion and the Mouse

One day, a lion was sleeping in the forest. A little mouse ran over his face and woke him up. The lion caught the mouse angrily and was about to eat him.

The mouse begged, “Please don’t eat me, O King! If you let me go, I will help you someday.”

The lion laughed, “How can a small mouse help a big lion?” But he let the mouse go.

A few days later, the lion was caught in a hunter’s net. He roared for help. The mouse heard his roar and ran quickly to the spot. The little mouse gnawed the ropes with his sharp teeth and set the lion free.

The lion thanked the mouse and said, “Even a small friend can be a great help.”
